JOHNSON CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Yankee Lawyer Says Ban Wanted to Oust His Clients From League.

READS LETTER TO COURT

Ban Also Charged With Trying to Prevent Renewal of Polo Grounds Lease.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

A few sticks of fresh dynamite were injected into the marry Yankee-Johnsonian war yesterday. The rival factions now have reached the stage where they read each other's letters in court, and that promises to make things more in-

The charge that a conspiracy exists in the American League on the part of Ban Johnson and his five "loyal" clubs to force the Yankee Colonels out of the league was made yesterday by Charles H. Tuttle, attorney for the New York Americans, in Part I, Special Term of the Supreme Court.

Tuttle and Marvin W. Wynne, John-Tuttle and Marvin W. Wynne, Johnson's local attorney, met in one of their legal wrestling matches before Justice Vernon M. Davis. Tuttle argued in favor of an order for the appointment of an open commission to go to Cleveland, Ohl, and examine James Dunn, Welter, McNichels and E. S. Tuttle wants to ask them about the stock that Ban Johnson owns in the Wynne's argument was that there s no reason for the creation of such a

In substantiating his charge that Ban Johnson is trying to put the rollers under the owners of the Yankees, Tuttle read extracts from a letter written by Johnson on August 5 to his five "loyal" club owners. The letter was written shortly after Johnson returned o Chicago after coming to New York on the Mays matter.

Yankees Obtain Important Letter.

This letter came into the hands of the New York club when a copybook con-taining letter press reproductions of Johnson's letters, along with other pa-pers was subpensed from Johnson's of-fices by the old board of directors. One significant paragraph quoted by Tuttle from this letter read as follows: "It is my judgment they (the New York owners) should be retired from baseball. After touching on the attitude of the Giants, other people can be in-terested in the club (the New York Americans) and a new lease obtained Americans) and a control of the Polo Grounda."

Another interesting excerpt from the same epistle read by Tuttle contains the following passage: "After returning from a trying week in New York, you know how impossible these people are."

"Obviously here exists a germ of con-spiracy to oust the New York Ameri-cans from baseball," commented Tuttle, Tuttle reported to the court that the Cleveland club had expressed its willingness to answer any questions in writing which might be put to it. "This, however, would be entirely unfair to us." argued Tuttle.

He said that it was not the intention of his clients to permit the Cleveland officials to ponder over questions and give them a chance to study their answers. Besides, he contended that one question often led to another and that only be such questioning could the New Yor club get the information which it wa baseball a clean game and not a syndicated one, so that every one who paid admission to an American League contest always was sure of seeing a reat, regular game played.

Opposes Oral Commission.

Wynne also spoke of how the New York club had harassed Johnson with litigation and that four summonses with-out complaint had been served on John-son when he came within the jurisdiction of the New York courts since September. He maintained the application for an oral commission was unjust. Justice Davis asked that all papers be submitted to him in this case. They clude the letter book from which Tut-Davis reserved decision.

The letter read by Attorney Tuttle seems to furnish proof to the charges frequently made by both Ruppert and Huston that it was Johnson's intention to drive them out of baseball if he had the chance. The charge also had been made that Johnson had been endeavoring to block the present owners of the New York club in renewing their lease en the Polo Grounds.

Johnson's reference to the Pole Grounds situation, particularly where it the tourney is being conducted under the applies to obtaining a new lease for auspices of the American Amateur Billpeople," is fraught with interest to New Yorkers.
